

Sesame Street Season 37

Select Episode Descriptions

Episode 4109

Sesame Street's newest resident Abby Cadabby is looking for someone to play with. She first meets Oscar, who isn't very nice to her. This makes Abby begin to feel sorry that her family moved. Then she meets Snuffy and Big Bird and they invite her to play hide-and-seek with them and their friends. Abby is a little apprehensive about meeting everybody all at once and she doesn't know how to play hide and seek. Big Bird and Snuffy convince her not to be shy or afraid. Everyone is sure to like her- they already do! She takes Big Bird's hand and says that she's ready to go. She wants to learn everything. During her day on Sesame Street she learns to play hide-and-seek, count to ten, and how to turn a pumpkin into a toaster. She also meets many new friends and they are all excited to meet her, as they have never met a fairy godchild before. Elmo and Zoe ask Abby if she will be their friend and come back and play. This makes Abby float in the air, which is what happens when she is happy.

Episode 4110

It's Abby's first day of school at the Storybook Community School and she is very excited! Mrs. Goose introduces Abby to the class and they make her feel at home by singing her the "Welcome Song." Next it's time for show-and-tell. It is Abby's turn, but she didn't know that she was supposed to bring something to share. Abby decides to use her magic wand to leave school and ask Elmo for help. Elmo thinks that the class would love to see her wand. As he says this, he accidentally taps his head with her wand and he disappears, suddenly appearing at Abby's school. Now that Elmo is at her school, Abby thinks that it would be more fun to introduce Elmo to the class during show-and-tell. Then she can tell everyone what a good friend he is. Abby has a great first day of school and learns many new things.

Episode 4112

Gabi and Miles are graduating from High School. Elmo can't believe that they are finished with school and he hasn't even started. Gabi and Miles remember their very first day of school and tell Elmo how they remember their classroom being an amazing place with books, toys, and blocks. There was also a cupboard full of art supplies. They sang the alphabet song and drew pictures of things they loved. They also both wanted to play with a fire truck at the same time. This taught them about sharing and how it is an important part of being in school. They shared their first day and now they will be sharing graduation. Elmo can't wait to start school and graduate, too!

Episode 4116

Elmo wants to play school, but who can be the teacher? Alan agrees to be Elmo's pretend teacher, while he's working at Hooper's Store. Mr. Alan first greets the class and then takes attendance, since this is what Elmo says happens in real school. Throughout Elmo's day, he gets to draw a picture, listen to Mr. Alan read a book and sing the alphabet song. Mr. Alan's school is getting very popular. Some kids have joined the class, along with Old Macdonald's goat and an elephant who has come all the way from Staten Island to learn how to rhyme. Elephant couldn't have done it without the greatest teacher in the whole world. Elmo also thanks his favorite teacher, Mr. Alan, for the best day of pretend school ever!

Episode 4122

Prairie Dawn and the gang are putting on a "Healthy Food Pageant." Prairie plays the piano while everyone else dresses up like different foods and sings about the foods' health benefits. Zoe sings about potatoes and Rosita sings about tortillas. Telly is just about to go on as an asparagus, but he just isn't feeling the part. His problem is that he has never tasted an asparagus, so how can he sing about one. Telly tries it, loves it and goes on stage to tell everyone. Another problem arises right before Elmo is about to make his broccoli debut- he can't find his costume! Gabi helps Elmo think about and remember all the places that he might have left it. Finally, Elmo does remember and he makes it on stage. They perform a wonderful pageant and everyone has learned how to stay strong and healthy every day!

Episode 4125

The "Alphabet Road Show" is coming to Sesame Street. It's the show that takes you on the road in search of unusual people saying the alphabet in unusual ways. David Letterguy, the host of the show, arrives and is ready to roll tape. Telly and Baby Bear know exactly how they are going to say the alphabet, but Elmo is still unsure. Baby Bear is first and he says the alphabet while he's waiting for his porridge to cool. Telly says the alphabet while bouncing on his pogo stick and wearing a triangle hat. Elmo is next, but he still can't think of an unusual way to say the alphabet. Elmo decides that he is going to go for a bike ride to help him think. David Letterguy is about to leave, when all of a sudden he hears Elmo saying the alphabet while riding his tricycle. This is an unusual way to say the alphabet! Elmo makes it on the show!

Episode 4133

It's National Try a New Food Day on Sesame Street and Telly is the Monster On-The-Spot Reporter. His first report is about Baby Bear, who always has his porridge with brown sugar and honey, but today he is going to try it with some fresh fruit on top. He thinks it's delicious and wants to try his porridge with a new fruit everyday! Now, his friends all over Sesame Street are trying something new.

Oscar tries a cherry on top of his chocolate ice cream with fish, saukraut, and marshmallows, Gordon tries sushi, Elmo and Zoe try asparagus, and Cookie Monster tries celery. The only one who hasn't tried something new, yet, is Telly. He is a little apprehensive because he always has his grilled cheese sandwich cut into triangles. But what if it was cut into squares instead? To his surprise squares are as yummy as triangles. Now everyone has tried something new today, even your On-The-Spot Reporter.