

Sesame Street Season 39

Murray Had A Little Lamb - general synopsis:

Looking for a way to encourage children's cognitive thinking skills while also exposing them to Spanish language? Well, meet Murray, Sesame Street's newest, friendly, resident monster. He's furry, he's orange, and boy, is he inquisitive! In these fun segments, Murray must figure out what kind of school his little lamb friend, Ovejita, is taking him to visit. There's just one problem: all of Ovejita's clues are in Spanish! To help him, Ovejita leads Murray all over New York City in search of visual hints - hints which are hidden inside of hot dog carts, magical trees, moving statues, and other unlikely places! Whether Murray ends up at karate school, cooking school, or Irish step dancing school, you can bet that the journey is bound to be as much fun as the destination!
